

DEATH OF MRS A. BRADLEY.

The funeral of the late Mrs Amy Bradley, wife of Mr George Bradley, whose death we reported in our last issue, took place on Friday morning last. The remains were interred in the Methodist portion of the Northam Cemetery, the Rev R C Stickson (who came from the city by special request) officiating at the graveside. The chief mourners were Mr S. Carra (father), Mr D. Carra (brother), and Mr Bradley (father-in-law). The husband (Mr George Bradley), was too ill to attend, the sudden death of his wife having prostrated him. The pall-bearers were Messrs J. Burke, H. Brookes, A. H. Jackson and R. H. Thackrah. Wreaths and floral tributes were forwarded by the Husband; Mother, Father and Brother; Mr and Mrs F. Bradley (father and mother-in-law); Mollie and Frank; nnie and Charrie; Mr and Mrs Finnin and family; Mr and Mrs I. R. Oltham; Mrs Clark and family; Mr and Mrs Way and family; Mrs L. Bartlett and family; Mr and Mrs Wollenden and family; Mr and Mrs Ferguson; Miss Finnin; Mr and Mrs E. J. Cock; Mr and Mrs Robbins; Nurse Helwigg; Mr and Mrs Fazy; Mr and Mrs C. E. Wilkinson; Mrs Freund and Etna; Mr and Mrs Geo. Bidstrup. The funeral arrangements were conducted by Mr J. W. Purslowe.
