

Wedding

Stutley—Clarke

A very pretty wedding was solemnised at the Methodist Church Albany on February 1, at 7 p.m., when Laura Irene, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Stutley of Mt. Barker Road., Albany (late of Gnowangerup), said "I will" to Thomas Edgar, elder son of Mrs. and the late W. F. Clarke, Katanning (late of Gnowangerup).

The bride, who entered the Church on the arm of her father, looked very charming in a gown of ivory satin with a beautifully embossed panel and full train. Her embroidered veil was held in place by a coronet of orange blossom and she carried white dahlias, carnations and rosebuds. The Misses Irene and Alice Treasure, who were daintily dressed in blue and pink silk respectively, acted as bridesmaids and carried bouquets of pink carnations and rosebuds.

The duties of best man were capably fulfilled by Mr Norman Bevan while the groomsman was Mr. Hughie Clarke. At the signing of the register, Mrs. Len Fitzpatrick rendered "Because," and, as the bridal couple left the Church, Miss Betty Treasure presented the bride with a lucky horse shoe.

The reception was held at the Strand Cafe, where a most delightful Breakfast was partaken by some 70 guests, who were received by Mrs. Stutley wearing navy blue crepe de chene, with accessories to match, assisted by Mrs. Clarke in powder blue, with white accessories.

Mr. A. J. Moir ably called for the time-honored toasts and when the host of telegrams had been read and the three-tiered cake cut, the guests adjourned to the home of the bride's parents, where a happy evening was passed. Miss Connie Moir in her usual gay style delighted those present with the piano. Many beautiful and useful presents were received.

piano. Many beautiful and useful presents were received.

When the happy couple left to spend their honeymoon at Busselton, the bride wore a pale blue travelling dress of crepe de chene with white accessories.