[^0]The Empress of Austrain has been yachting this year among the Groek Islands, but atill anffeva terribly from rhenmatiam, and is alwaya attended by a lady dootorMadam Goldbach-whose business ia to subjeet her to maseage. At one tine the Empresa fenced three hoars daily to kcep her liamb elastic, but latterly she has abandomed all exercine except walking.

Blondin has reappeared in London, and has found an ongagement at the Aquarinm. It is remarkable to find a man of Blondin's age and past larerative popalarity atill puraning his perilons enreer. A man at 65 mnst find his nerves less uteady and his oye loos sure than one at 40 .

[^0]:    DEATH OF AN OLD COLONIST.

    Onk of the oldest colonints in Western Angtralia has passed away in the person of Mre. Hannab Leeder, who died at hor residence in Hay.steet, west, on Monday afternoen. The deceased lady arrived in this colo $y$ in the year 1830, and was the wife of the ante Mr. William Leeder, and the mother of a large family, most of whom hare married and settiled in the colony. Nothwithstanding her years, for at the time of her death sho had attained the ripe old age of 91, Mra. Laeder was, up to a comparativoly reoent date, a very hale and hearty old lady. Daring the past eighteen mon'hs the infirmities of age began to press boavily on her, and of late she commenced to fail very rapidly, and on Monday afternoon she quietly broathed her last while ahe lay sleeping. The funeral took place at five o'clock, on Tueaday afternoon, when the deceased lady w.as buried in the Church of England cemetes: Amonget those who formod tha procession which followed the body to the grave we noticed Mr G Randell, san, Mr G Gilyde, sen, Mr W Padoury, Mr G Boll, Mr W Strickland, and MrW Snook, pall bearers: Mr C & Andrew, MrJ A Hieks, Mr F Glaskia, sen, Mr F L Hussey, Mr W Mumma, Mr J Djor, sen, Mr Hammond, and Mr T Salkilld.

