IRVING—HILLIER.

A pretty wedding was celebrated in Mundalla Methodist Church on June 16, when Miss Hazel Daphne Hillier, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs Geo. Hillier, of Mundalla, was married to Mr Colin Miller Irving, second son of the late Mr and Mrs D. L. Irving of Stewarts Range. The effective decorations of the Church were carried out by Mr and Mrs E. W. Packer and Misses K. Hillier, L. Tremain and M. Dinning. The bride was given away by her father, and was frocked in white georgette, wore veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas and asparagus fern. Miss Freda Hillier (sister of the bride) as bridesmaid, was daintily dressed in blue georgette and carried a bouquet of cream roses and fern, with blue streamers. Mr Carl McEachern, of Stewarts Range, was best man. The Rev. F. W. Brasher united the couple, and, while the register was being signed, Mr Jordan sang "Because". Miss M. Dinning was organist and played the "Wedding March". After the ceremony the wedding party with immediate relatives of the couple were motored to the home of the bride where the wedding breakfast was served. The fine wedding cake was made and decorated by cousins of the bride, Miss K. Hillier and Mrs C. J. Watson. The bride's mother wore navy crepe-de-chine with putty relief and black merv hat with brilliant buckles. Mr and Mrs Irving took train at Bordertown for Adelaide for their honeymoon. The bride travelled in a tailored mushroom costume with hat and shoes to match. Their future home will be near Naracoorte.
