

BORDERTOWN EASTER WEDDING

MURCH—HILLIER

The Rev. R. F. Woods was the officiating minister at the wedding, in Bordertown Congregational Church at 5 p.m. on Easter Saturday (April 16), of Molly, elder daughter of Mrs and the late Mr A. Hillier, of Bordertown, and Albert, eldest son of Mr and Mrs S. Murch, of Bordertown. Miss J. Scott played the wedding march.

The church was artistically decorated with Easter daisies, cosmos and dahlias, by Mrs Bottrill and Miss M. Perry.

The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr James Weir, was frocked in finely-pleated navy georgette, trimmed with diamante buttons to the front of the bodice, with long pleated sleeves finished at the wrist with diamante buttons. A large navy-blue sisol straw hat was worn with lily of the valley under the brim, and a white shoulder spray of white rosebuds, carnations, verbena, begonia, and maidenhair fern, was worn. A navy-blue bag and white gloves completed the charming effect.

The bridesmaid, Miss Lorna Hillier, sister of the bride, wore a dusky pink sheer frock, with pleated basque and diamante brooch, and a large hat to tone. Her bouquet was of Lorraine Lee roses, and charm dahlias. The bouquets were made and given by Mrs R. C. Allen.

Mr Stan Murch, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. During the signing of the register, Misses E. Blackwell and P. Carson rendered the duet "O Perfect Love". Master Dennis Carson and little Margaret Milne hung lucky horse shoes on the bride's arm as she left the church.

A large number of friends attended the reception in the kindergarten hall, where Mr and Mrs S. Murch and Mrs Hillier received over 100 guests.

hall, where Mr and Mrs S. Murch and Mrs Hillier received over 100 guests. The tables were sweetly decorated with pink and white flowers, and a sumptuous spread was laid out.

Mrs Hillier was frocked in black marocain, trimmed with white, with a black velour hat, and wore a shoulder spray of autumn tonings of lantana, amaranthus, and fern. Mrs Murch wore a brown costume, with matching velour hat, and also wore a shoulder spray of magenta button dahlias, minalabata, and fern.

The beautiful three-tiered wedding cake was made by Miss J. Weir, aunt of the bride, and exquisitely decorated by Miss Lorna Hillier. Usual toasts were honored and good wishes extended. Many valuable gifts were received.

The happy couple spent their honeymoon in Adelaide. The bride's travelling frock was a navy tailored ensemble, navy velour hat, and squirrel choker, the gift of the bridegroom.

The future home of Mr and Mrs Murch will be at Bordertown.
