

WEDDING.

KING—MINCHIN.

A very pretty wedding was solemnised at St. Matthew's Church, Guildford, on October 28, the contracting parties being Miss Amy Minchin, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ww. Minchin, of West Swan, and Mr. David King, of Purton, Wiltshire, England. The service was conducted by the Rev. E. Foster, and was fully choral, the bride having been a member of the choir for a number of years. Mr. Montgomery presided at the organ, and the choir sang "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden" as the bridal party entered the church. The bride, who was given away by her father, was arrayed in a very pretty dress of crepe-de-chine with a court train and dainty finishings of soft lace. A large true lover's knot and orange blossom ornamented the train, and a beautiful bouquet of choice white flowers and fern completed the toilet. Miss Gertrude Minchin, sister of the bride, attended as bridesmaid, wearing a simple cream dress of embroidered voile, a pretty cream hat, and carrying a beautiful bouquet of pale pink roses and carnations with touches of maidenhair fern. The bridegroom's gift, a gold Mizpah brooch, was also worn. The bride was also attended by her two little nieces, Misses Patsy Demasson and Rita Gardiner, who looked very dainty in their soft white robes of embroidered muslin and little white bonnets. They carried small posies of flowers, and wore little gold wishbone brooches, gifts of the bridegroom. The es, gifts of the bridegroom. The duties of best man were very ably carried out by Mr. Harry Moseley. The bridal party left the church amid showers of confetti, and repaired to the Masonic Hall at East Guildford, where the reception was held. After the good wishes of all had been extended to the happy couple, refreshments were partaken of and the usual toasts honored. A most enjoyable evening was spent afterwards.

The bride travelled in a saxe blue costume, with basque effect, and trimmed on the bodice with cream lace. A very becoming cream hat was worn, trimmed with a large ostrich feather.
