

An Old Resident.

DEATH OF MRS. ANNIE DUDLEY.

There passed away at Mount Dick on Saturday afternoon last Mrs Annie Dudley, widow of the late Mr. Edward Dudley, at the advanced age of 75 years. She had been an invalid for several years, and her husband died some years ago. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon and was very largely attended. The remains were encased in a handsome jarrah casket, with heavy silver mountings, the place of interment being the Anglican portion of the Northam cemetery. The Rev. A. L. Marshall officiated and the service was of a very impressive character, closing with the singing of the hymn: "Jesu, Lover of My Soul." The pall-bearers were Messrs. R. H. Thackrah, W. J. Stewart, Watson, R. Hitchcock, J. Giblett and C. Christmass.

A number of wreaths and floral tributes were received, including the following:— Mr. and Mrs. T. Sinclair and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. Lawrence, Mrs. W. Lawrence, senr., W. J. Stewart and Sons, Mr. and Mrs Lionel Smith and family, Bert and Lillie Giblett, Clarice (granddaughter), Will and Fanny, Ellen and Jim (daughter and son-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Quindlan, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. H. Forward, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Forward, Mrs. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Forward.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. J. W. Parslowe.
