

MR A, CHRISTMASS

On Friday night last the sad death occurred of Arthur Christmass, second son of Mrs H H Campbell, of Charles street, Northam, at the age of 26 years. The deceased was a returned soldier having served in the A.I.F. with the 51st Battalion. The funeral took place on Saturday morning last the remains being interred in the Anglican portion of the Northam Cemetery, the Rev Grimes officiating at the graveside, where Driver J. Lewis sounded the "Last Post." There was a good attendance of returned men. The chief mourner was Mr George Christmass (brother). The pallbearers, were : Sergt-Major H L Thackrah (representing the Defence Department) Messrs J C Hutchinson, L J Haining, E Grey, and Privates McBride and Hellwig. Mr T Hartley represented the Municipal Employees. The mortuary arrangements were conducted by Mr J. W. Purslowe.