

Wedding

Gorman—Forward

A pretty wedding was solemnized on the 10th inst., at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, Northam, by the Rev. Father Walsh. The contracting parties were Mr. Patrick William Gorman, of Jennapulin, and Miss Cecilia Forward, fifth daughter of Mr. H. Forward, of Malabaine. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. H. Forward, and Miss Carter and her sister Ida accompanied her as bridesmaids. The best man was Mr. Lionel Watson, and the groomsmen Mr. Jack Watson, both brothers of the bridegroom.

The bride's dress was a beautiful silk voile with pearl trimmings over lace, with pretty wreath and veil. She carried a magnificent bouquet of roses and fern, the gift of the bridegroom.

The bridesmaid wore a pretty cream Sicilian dress with braid trimmings, and pretty cream hat to match. Miss Ida's dress was a dainty cream tulle, with hat to match.

Both brides carried very pretty bouquets of pink and white carnations and fern, also gifts of the bridegroom. The bride's travelling dress was a grey cloth coat and skirt, with green braid and trimmings, and lovely cream hat.

After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the residence of the bride's parents at Malabaine, where a tastefully arranged wedding breakfast was partaken of. The table was artistically decorated with flowers. A pretty wedding bell, trimmed with white flowers and fern, was suspended over a large wedding cake in front of the bride and bridegroom. Early in the evening the happy pair left amidst the good wishes of their friends for their new home at Dandabin. The assembled guests spent a very enjoyable evening before they
