
Wedding.

MORRELL—FORWARD.

On Wednesday, September 17th, was the scene of a pretty wedding in St. John's Church, Northam, when Mr. Alban C. Morrell was united in matrimony to Miss Clarence Emily Forward, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Forward, of Glenroy, Northam, the Rev. P. U. Henn being the officiating clergyman. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a trained gown of ivory silk, the bodice being tucked and finished with a soft chiffon fichu and orange blossom, the usual wreath and veil being worn; shower bouquet of carnations, roses, tuberroses and Asparagus fern with satin streamers. The bride was attended by four bridesmaids, the Misses Ida, Eileen, and Connie Morrell (sisters of the bridegroom) and Miss Maud Forward (sister of the bride). The bridesmaids were dressed alike in white Indian muslin, with insertion lace and tucks; pretty white hats and carried bouquets of white carnations, roses and ferns. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a gold muff chain, and to the bridesmaids gold brooches and lucky bells. After the ceremony the party drove to the Town Hall, where they received their guests. Light refreshments were served and the usual toasts duly honored, the bridal pair driving away amid showers of rice and rose leaves to their future home at Jenna-pullen. The bride travelled in a pretty grey costume, trimmed with white satin and applique, the skirt being prettily banded with grey satin, fancy straw hat trimmed with chiffon and bows of white ribbon. A host of useful and costly presents were received.
