WATSON—FORWARD

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnised at St John's Church by the Rev R H Moore, on Wednesday, July 6, when Miss Cora Forward of Malabaine, was married to Mr Fred Watson of Jennapullen. The sister of the bride, Miss Ida Forward, was bridesmaid, and Mr E Watson, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. The bride was given away by her brother. The bride looked charming in a cream silk voile over glace, trimmed with tucked net and silver trimmings. She was crowned with a beautiful wreath and veil, and carried a lovely bouquet of cream roses, carnations, and fern, the gift of the bridegroom. The bridesmaid's dress was of cream voile trimmed with pale blue, with a very pretty hat to match.

After the ceremony, the wedding party drove to Malabaine, the residence of the bride's parents, where a number of intimate friends partook of breakfast, which was laid out in magnificent style. The evening was pleasantly spent in the drawing room where the guests were treated to music, interspersed with dainty refreshments.

Early in the evening the happy couple drove to their new home at Jennapullen, where they are assured of a happy welcome from the residents, as they have been popularly known in the district all their lives.

They have been popularly known in the district all their lives.

The brides travelling dress was of dark green cloth, coat and skirt, cream felt hat, trimmed with green velvet and white feathers.
