

Wedding.

St. John's Church, Northam, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, Jan. 9th, the contracting parties being Mr. F. W. Roe and Miss Edith May Forward, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Forward, of "Glenroy," Northam, the Rev. E. S. Clairs being the officiating clergyman. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a handsome trained dress of white brocaded satin, beautifully trimmed with gathered chiffon and satin ribbon. A chiffon scarf fell from the left shoulder to the waist and then to the bottom of the skirt where it was caught with a spray of orange blossom and mother of pearl buckle, and carried a shower bouquet composed of tuber roses, carnations, maiden hair and asparagus ferns. Misses Clarice Forward (sister of the bride), Pearl Smith (cousin), and Maud Forward (sister) acted as bridesmaids, the two elder ones being dressed in pretty soft dresses of white mercerised Pongee prettily trimmed with tucks and insertion, fancy straw hats trimmed with tulle, tips and ospreys, and carried bouquets of carnations and ferns with red streamers. The younger bridesmaid wore soft white silk, picture hat. The bridegroom's gift to the bridesmaids was gold neck chain and brooches. A reception was held at the Town Hall. After light refreshments had been served round and the usual toasts honored, the happy couple left for their future home, "Roeland." The bride travelled in a very pretty gray dress trimmed with white tucked satin, and white hat trimmed with chiffon tips and ospreys. The list of presents was—
