

Wedding

CLARKE—MARTIN.

The marriage of Mr. J. H. Clarke, to Miss Edith M. Martin, took place in Wesley Church on Wednesday afternoon last. The Rev. H. Faull officiated. The Church was tastefully decorated and filled with interested spectators. The bride wore the customary wreath and veil, also a pretty dress of crepe de chene, trimmed with bands of satin, and a shell pink train fastened at the shoulders. She carried a specially fine bouquet of flowers, and was supported by Misses Clarke and G. Martin, who were daintily attired with white crepe de chene. The groomsmen were Messrs. L. and N. Clarke. The Church organist, Mr. F. A. Gregory, played the wedding hymn and march. Relatives of the bride and bridegroom assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Martin, Chidlow-street, for the reception and wedding breakfast, and several friends gathered later for a pleasant evening. A great many presents, both useful and valuable, were given to the happy couple, who left early in the evening for their new home at Jounacubine.
