WATSON—CHRISTMASS.

A very pretty and attractive wedding was performed by the Rev. W. Patrick in St. John's Church, Northam, on July 2, the contracting parties being Ernest William, eldest son of Mrs and the late William Watson, of Jennapulin, and Flora Hannah, second daughter of Mr and Mrs Edward Christmass, of Grass Valley. The bridegroom was attended by his cousin, Mr Jack Watson, as best man, and Mr Steve Martin as groomsman. The bride was attended by her sister Mary and Miss Ida Forward as bridesmaids. She wore a very pretty dress of French embroidery, and the usual wreath and veil, and carried a beautiful white ivory prayer-book with streamers. The bridesmaids wore dresses of cream voile, with cream hats to match, and carried lovely bouquets, the gift of the bridegroom. The church was well filled with relatives and friends to witness the ceremony. The bridal party left the church amid showers of rice and confetti, and the photographer was visited. They then proceeded to the home of the bride, where the wedding breakfast was partaken of, and the usual toasts honored. The happy couple left for their future home about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, the bride travelling in a very becoming grey coat and skirt.

The under-mentioned is a list of the many presents received:—Bridegroom to bride, handsome feather stole and hand-bag; bride to bridegroom, travelling rug; bridegroom to bridesmaids, pretty little gold wishbone brooches; mother of bride, trousseau and bedroom linen; mother of bridegroom, bedroom suite; father of bride, cheque and a cow; Mary (sister of bride), very pretty afternoon tea set; Edith (sister of bride), bedroom chair; Phoebe, Clarice, and Madge (sisters of bride), handsome work-box; Aubrey (brother of bride), pair of fowls; Cora and Fred, bedroom mats; Ida and Jack, silver-mounted pickle shape; Steve Martin, silver serviette rings; Alice Martin, rose bowl; Val Martin, silver fruit dish; Aunt Flora, pair picture frames; Ethel and Ralph, glass dishes; Aunt Ruth and Ruby, glass jug and basin; Uncle Charlie and Aunt Susie, pair fowls; Mr and Mrs G.
