

Martin-Cullen Wedding

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Joseph's Church, Subiaco, on April 17, when Miss Dorothy Cullen became Mrs. Geoffrey Martin. Dorothy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. H. Cullen, of "Kings-ton Park." Jurendine, and Geoffrey, a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Martin, of "Kun-ine," Northam.

The bride entered the Church on the arm of her father and was exquisitely gowned, her frock having a tightly-fitted bodice of guipure lace with a bouffant skirt of tulle, appliqued with guipure motifs. Her three-quarter length veil was attached to a dainty feathered cap and she carried a bouquet of frangipanni and tuber roses. The matron of honour, Mrs. Hugh O'Brien, was enchanting in her frock of embossed lemon organdie. Her headdress was most original and consisted of Lily of the Valley in halo effect. She carried a matching muff. Mr. Ken Aberdeen was best man.

Many friends from Northam motored down for the wedding and attended the reception at the Hotel Adelphi. The guests were received by Mrs. Cullen, whose ensemble consisted of beaded grey sheer frock and feathered cap. Mrs. Martin wore a delicate shade of orchid tulle. Both hostesses chose matching sprays attached to their handbags. The bride's going-away dress consisted of an off-white nylon frock with a delightful little, matching flowered cap. Her accessories were black. The happy couple will make their future home in Northam.
