

Death of Mr. George Allington

Another pioneer of the district in the person of Mr. George Allington, passed away at his residence, Green Station on Thursday morning in his 79 year. The deceased gentleman was born in Gloucestershire, and came to this State some 53 years ago. Upon arrival he entered into the service of the late Mr. John Cooke, at Katrine, and some six years later removed to Green Station, near Chittibin, where he resided up to the time of his death, which was not unexpected, Mr. Allington having been an invalid for the past two years. A widow, one son (Mr. John Allington), and two daughters (Mrs. H. Watson and Miss Allington) survive him. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon, and was largely attended. It proceeded from Green Station to St. Joseph's Church, and thence to the Northam Cemetery. The Rev. Father O'Donnell was the officiating clergyman. The chief mourners were Mrs. Allington (widow), Mr. J. Allington (son), Mrs. H. Watson and Miss Allington (daughters). The pallbearers were Messrs. J. French, J. M. Carroll, Watson, J. Thompson, Jas. White, and W. Forward. Wreaths from the following were forwarded:—Sorrowing wife and family, Mr. and Mrs. P. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Leeson, Mr. and Mrs. Lord, Mr. D. McBride, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. French, Mr. and Mrs. H. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Morgan, Mrs. S. J. Lord, E. and B. Quinlan, Mr. J. Gould, and Mrs. J. Thompson.
