

WEDDING.

MURRAY—MINCHIN.

A wedding of interest to old settlers took place at Upper Swan Church on April 23, the contracting parties being Miss Gertrude Minchin, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Minchin, of West Swan, and Mr. George Murray, of "Glenmore," Greenhills, late 10th Light Horse. The Rev. E. Saunders officiated, and Mrs. D. King presided at the organ. The bride was given away by her father, and wore a dainty dress of ivory charmeuse, trimmed with crystal beads, and pretty white hat. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses and carnations. The bridesmaids were the Misses Rita Gardiner and Kathleen Demasson, nieces of the bride, who wore simple dresses of white crepe de chene, and hats of white silk straw, with finishings of heliotrope and lemon, which corresponded nicely with their dainty bouquets. Mr. W. Murray (brother of the bridegroom) carried out the duties of best man, and Mr. W. Vincent acted as groomsmen. The quaint little church, which was filled with friends and well wishers, has many interesting historical associations, being the oldest church in the State and the bride's grand-parents were married there 75 years ago. Many choice presents were received, including cheques, and numerous telegrams and letters of congratulation. The bride's travelling dress was a pretty saxe crepe de chene, finished with steel beads.
