

The Gale-Dudley Wedding.

A wedding of great interest to the residents of Malabaine, Northam, and surrounding districts was celebrated on Wednesday at St. John's Church, Northam, by the Rector (Rev. A. L. Marshall). The contracting parties were Miss May Dudley, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dudley, of Malabaine, and Mr. J. Gale, son of Mr. Geo. Gale, of Grass Valley. The bride was given away by her father. The wedding breakfast was given in the Malabaine Hall, and over one hundred guests were present. At the breakfast the following toast list was honored :—

"The Bride and Bridegroom," proposed by Mr. W. J. Stewart, J.P., supported by Mr. J. McPherson, of Jennapullin, and responded to by the bridegroom; "The Bridesmaids," proposed by Mr. F. B. Timperley, and responded to by Mr. Reg. Dudley; "The Parents of the Bride and Bridegroom," proposed by Mr. Jas. Mitchell, M.L.A., supported by Mr. J. M. Carroll, and responded to by Mr. A. E. Dudley; "Absent Friends," proposed by Mr. J. W. Stewart. The gathering was presided over by Mr. W. Dudley.
