

FUNERAL.

The Late Miss Jean Olga Davies.

The funeral of the late Miss Jean Olga Davies, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Davies, of 62 Mandurah-road, South Fremantle, took place in the Church of England portion of the Fremantle Cemetery yesterday afternoon. The Rev. L. A. Marina officiated at the graveside in the presence of a large gathering. Miss Davies was born at Fremantle and educated at the Beaconsfield and Princess May schools, and was in the employ of the Economic, Ltd., Fremantle, for nearly two years. The chief mourners were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Davies (parents), Mesdames A. Mackay, A. Pierce, S. Brindley and F. Howson (aunts), Messrs. A. Mackay, A. Pierce, S. Brindley and F. Howson (uncles), Mrs. E. A. Davies, and numerous cousins. The pall bearers, comprising some of her girl friends, were the Misses B. Chamberlain, S. Clarke, V. McKennie, M. Nelson, G. Gibbons and E. Luff. The coffin was borne to the graveside by Messrs. N. Abbott, L. Bickley, M. Brindley and J. Chamberlain. Mr. Marina, in the course of a brief address, referred to the sadness of the occasion and expressed the sincere sympathy of those present with the relatives in their sudden bereavement. The hearse was laden with beautiful floral tributes, and widespread expressions of sympathy have been extended to the bereaved relatives.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Arthur E. Davies and Co.
