

Wedding Bells

BOWCOCK—CHRISTMASS.

On Easter Monday, at St. John's Church, Northam, the marriage of Miss Lillian Evaline Christmass, second daughter of the late George Christmass and Mrs. H. H. Campbell, Northam, to Mr. Frank Leonard Bowcock, second son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bowcock, of Warrington, Lancashire, England, was quietly solemnised by the Rev. A. L. Marshall. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. G. E. Christmass, was prettily attired in a dainty dress of white voile and shadow lace, finished with tulle ruffles and touches of ninon. The train, suspended from the shoulders, was lined with silk and garnished with the lovers' knots, pearl hose shoes and orange blossom. The usual wreath and veil were also worn, and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums, roses and asparagus fern, the gift of the bridegroom. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Alice Christmass, who looked very becoming in a smart costume of cream Garbadine, black velvet hat, with pale pink trimmings. Mr. J. Stanley Bowcock, brother of the bridegroom, fulfilled the duties of best man. The reception was held at the residence of Mr. G. E. Christmass, the usual toasts being honoured. The happy couple left by the evening train for York, where they spent a few days prior to their leaving for the East by the s.s. Zealandia to-day. The bride travelled in a smart costume of navy blue serge and velvet hat to match. A number of costly and useful presents were received.