

Death Of Northam Resident

On August 12, Raymond Frederick Forward, of East-street, died in the Northam hospital, aged 54 years. He had not been in good health prior to his death, and had been in the hospital for five weeks.

The son of Frederick and the late Emilie Forward, he was born in Northam, and had been employed in a grocery store in the town. He was unmarried.

The funeral service was held at St. John's Church at 2.30 p.m. on Friday, August 13, the Ven. Arch-deacon Bothamley officiating.

Burial took place in the Church of England portion of the Northam cemetery, the pall bearers being Messrs. C. Withnell, E. Rewell, L. Hanks, C. Hanks, K. Rule, W. Ople, R. Zenda and L. Thair.