LATE MR. STEPHEN McMANUS

Mr. Stephen McManus' death, which occurred at his home, Berwick-street, Victoria Park, on Monday will be regretted throughout the Eastern wheatbelt. Aged 62 years, he was stricken with a severe illness a few months ago. The deceased, popularly known as Steve, was the son of one of Irishtown's oldest families. For some years he carried on farming in the Goomalling district. Later he became an inspector to the W.A. Government's Lands Department and his passing means a great loss to the Department. His remains were interred in the Roman Catholic Cemetery Karrakatta, on Tuesday morning. Amongst the large number of mourners at the graveside were many former residents of Northam, Jennacubbine, Goomalling and other Eastern districts centres.
