

OBITUARY.

DEATH OF AN OLD COLONIST.

THE LATE MR. W. L. GIBBS, SENR.

A very large number of people will learn with deep regret of the death this morning of Mr. William Lacey Gibbs, senr., at his residence at Wharf-street, Woodupine. The deceased, who was in his sixty-eighth year, was born in Western Australia, and leaves a wife, five sons, and three daughters to mourn his loss. He was one of the pioneers of the Canning district, and was the chairman of the local roads board for many years. The funeral will leave the late Mr. Gibbs's residence at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, and will proceed to the Anglican Church, Cannington, where the first portion of the service will be held, and from thence the cortege will follow the remains to the Cannington cemetery.
