

Obituary

LATE MRS ELIZABETH OYSTON

The death occurred on September 23, at the Northam Hospital of Mrs Elizabeth Oyston of Baker's Hill. The late Mrs Oyston was born at Chewton Victoria 86 years ago, and lived for some years at Deniliquin, New South Wales. Married at Richmond, Victoria, she and her late husband, who predeceased her in 1930, later moved to South Australia and finally with their young family came to W.A., living at Karrijine (now Coates Siding) for a while, before finally settling down to pioneer a home four miles south of Baker's Hill in about 1905. The old homesteads are now occupied by her sons Harold and Les, the sole remaining members of their family.

The funeral, which took place at the Church of Christ portion of the Northam Cemetery on September 24, was largely attended by relations and friends. The chief mourners were Harold and Les (sons), Hilda and Ethel (daughters-in-law), Jim, Frank, Betty, Marilyn and Lynette (grandchildren). The pall bearers were Messrs R. A. Hooper, A. Jose, P. T. Cook, W. Warr, A. Ashman, (representing P. & C. Association and Progress Association), J. Biasin (representing the I.O.O.F. Lodge and Cricket Club), Chas Hill (representing the tennis and golf clubs).
